

LOUD LLAMAS — Project Spec

Read this file at the start of every session. It is the source of truth for this project.

What Is This

Loud Llamas is a sprint-based marketing setup storefront. Customers pick a marketing channel, choose a package tier, pay, fill out an intake form, and receive a fully configured marketing setup in 5-7 business days. No retainers. No calls. No subscriptions.

Sister company to Thayer Systems.

Tech Stack

Sections in order:

1. Nav — Logo (top left), links: Packages / How It Works / FAQ, CTA button: "Get started"
2. Hero — Headline: "Stop stalling. Start marketing." Subhead: "Pick your channel. Pay once. Get it done in 5-7 days." CTA: "Build your setup"
3. Problem block — "You know you need to do it. You've been putting it off. We get it. Here's what we do: set it all up, hand you the keys, and get out of your way."

4. Pull quote — “We’re not your agency. We’re your launch crew.”
5. How it works — 3 steps: Pick your package → Fill out your intake → We build it, you own it
6. Package preview — Cards for each of the 7 channels. Click goes to /packages
7. Positioning block — “No retainers. No monthly fees. No 18-month contracts. Just a clean setup and a handoff.”
8. Paid Social Callout — “Honest talk about Meta. Look, Meta makes it nearly impossible for anyone outside their walled garden to configure ad accounts on behalf of clients. We’re not going to pretend otherwise. So instead of a half-baked setup, we built something better: The Paid Social Playbook. Years of paid social experience packaged into a step-by-step implementation guide. You run it. We built it. Same outcome, no access headaches.”
9. FAQ — See FAQ section below
10. Footer CTA — “Stop stalling. Let the llamas handle it.” CTA: “Build your setup”
11. Footer — Logo, tagline, links, “A Thayer Systems Company”

FAQ Copy

Do I need to know exactly what I want? Not really. That’s what the configurator is for. If you’re stuck on something, check the box. Let The Llamas Decide. You can update it later.

How long does it take? 5-7 business days standard. 3 days if you add rush at checkout.

What if something breaks after handoff? Flat $79 troubleshooting fee. No drama.

Do you offer ongoing management? No. But we can refer you to someone who does.

What platforms do you use? We recommend the best tool for your budget and situation. Every recommendation comes with affiliate pricing where available, which helps keep our setup fees low.

Can I buy more than one package? Oh, we hope you do. It helps feed the llamas. Each one is its own sprint. Mix and match.

Why is Paid Social a playbook instead of a setup? Because Meta makes it nearly impossible for third parties to properly access and configure ad accounts on behalf of clients. Rather than promise something we cannot cleanly deliver, we built a better product. The playbook gives you everything you need to launch it yourself.

Email Templates

Order Confirmation (to customer)

Subject: You're in. Setup starts soon. Body: Order summary, delivery window (created_at + delivery_days), next step (fill out intake), support link.

Intake Complete (to fulfillment team)

Subject: New order ready — [channel] [tier] — [customer name] Body: Full order JSON, intake answers, file links, customer contact info.

Support Auto-Reply (to customer)

Subject: Got it. We'll be in touch. Body: Confirmation they submitted, expected reply time (1 business day), order link.

Build Order

Follow this sequence. Do not build UI before the data layer is ready.

1. Project scaffold (Next.js 14, Tailwind, ESLint, TypeScript)
2. Environment variables (.env.local template)
3. Supabase client setup + schema migrations
4. Stripe products creation script + webhook handler
5. Resend email setup
6. Homepage (/)
7. /packages page
8. /configure/[channel] — build one channel first, then replicate
9. /checkout
10. /intake/[orderId]
11. /confirmation/[orderId]
12. /support
13. n8n webhook integration

14. End-to-end test: homepage → configure → checkout → intake → confirmation → fulfillment email
